IMPORTANT

Wales Safeguarding Procedures, the Welsh Government guidance 'Keeping Learners Safe' identify four categories of abuse:

- Neglect
- Physical injury
- Sexual abuse
- Emotional abuse

If you have any concerns about any of these regarding Ysgol Harri Tudur School pupils, contact the Child Protection Staff

If you have concerns regarding children and young people in the wider community, contact the Child Care Assessment Team (CCAT)

Be vigilant - never hesitate to seek advice if unsure. (this also applies to welfare concerns or any other worries - always share them)

Under normal circumstances, follow the following instructions:

Child protection concerns can arise in a number of ways.

Responding to a child raising a concern/making a disclosure

- Listen and keep on listening.
- Don't question.
- Don't pass judgement on what you are told.
- Never promise confidentiality.
- Explain that you will have to pass on your concerns and don't delay taking action.
- Contact Ann Andrews, Jon Jones or Sarah Smith
- Ensure that you report a disclosure of abuse verbally (by phone or in person) - do not rely on an email.
- Record the details of the concern and who you passed it on to as soon as possible, state the time/date you received the information and sign and date your account.
- If you require support contact the child protection staff above.

Concerns against a member of staff:

- Follow the same process as above.
- Do not alert/inform the member of staff.

Concerns against any of the child protection staff above:

- Contact the Headteacher.
- Do not alert/inform the member of staff.

In unusual circumstances, it may not be possible or appropriate to follow the instructions above, e.g.

- A disclosure/concern outside school hours when the named child protection staff are unavailable,
- The disclosure/concern relates to all the named child protection staff,
- You are not happy that appropriate action has been taken through the normal route.

In such circumstances, you must contact the Child Care Assessment Team using the contact details overleaf

All child protection concerns, queries or referrals should be passed to Ann Andrews and Emily Baker
